

Mr Wilson's Weekly Message

I can not believe that we have already completed our first week of the GCSE season. I am so proud with how our Year 11 pupils have dealt with their first major exams. Each morning school is buzzing with revision classes from 7:30am. On Monday morning there were a few nerves, but this just shows how much our Year 11s want to succeed. After every exam, they have been flooding out of the hall with smiles on their faces saying how pleased they were with the paper. This just reinforces to me what I already know, that our pupils are incredibly well prepared and supported by their teachers. My favourite moment, of course, is the truly deserved satisfaction that pupils will feel when they receive their results. I know that it may feel like you still have a long way to go, and there are still a lot of exams ahead, but I promise you Year 11, that you really will be so incredibly proud of what you have achieved come 24th August. I want you to keep that thought in mind over the next couple of weeks and as I said last week, we are all behind you, supporting you.
