

Mr Wilson's Weekly Message

On Thursday Year 11 sat their final GCSE paper. I cannot believe that GCSE season has already finished. This means that we are coming to the end of another academic year here at The Hurlingham Academy. Every year around this time, I find myself reflecting on the year we have had, and I think "I could not be more grateful to my staff or more proud of these pupils". Yet, every year I find myself amazed at the successes we have shared throughout the year and the journey we are on together. After two years without public exams, I think it's fair to say that we all felt a little bit out of routine. Morning crams and the nerves of unseen questions felt like a distant memory. But after seeing the pupils faces at the end of each exam I very quickly realised that I had no need to be nervous. Despite the challenges of the last couple of years, I can confidently say that pupils could not have been better prepared by their teachers and I can not wait to celebrate with you all on results day. As I look at the diary for the next couple of weeks, it's clear that we may be coming to the end of term but there is definitely no winding down here at THA. I urge all pupils to finish this year well. Ensure you revise carefully for your final few end of year assessments so you can show your teachers all you have learnt over the past couple of months, and really make the most of the opportunities you are given over the last 3 and a half weeks of lessons.

Art Exhibition

We are so excited to announce Art departments GCSE Summer exhibition.

The exhibition will take place at The Sands End Art Centre (just across the road from school) on Wednesday 6th July from 5-7pm.

This is a fantastic opportunity to celebrate the hard work that our GCSE artists have put in over the last few years as well as some of the fabulous work from pupils lower down the school.

Please do come and join us for some canapes and to celebrate the fantastic talent we have here at The Hurlingham Academy.
