

Apply to sixth form and University.
Continue your lifelong love of learning

How do I achieve exam success?

What are the ingredients of a successful argumentative piece?

What methods do writers use to convey emotional tone?

How do I explore subtle differences between texts?

Are ideas about power timeless?

What are the most powerful poetic methods?

Language Paper 2: Reading and Writing Non-Fiction

Literature: Poetry- Unseen and Power and Conflict

YEAR 11

How do I revise effectively?

What are the differences between non-fiction text types?

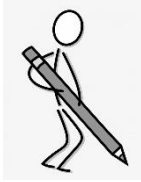

How do different writers convey their ideas on a similar theme?

How do I respond to an unseen poem?

What is the powerful didactic message of the text?

How do I approach an unseen extract with confidence?

How do I respond to an evaluative statement?

How do I construct a well-sequenced narrative extract?

What did J.B Priestley believe?

How does the text galvanize sympathy?

How does Shakespeare present the metamorphosis of the characters?

Language Paper 1: Reading and Writing Fiction

Literature: Priestley's An Inspector Calls

Literature: Shakespeare's Macbeth

What methods does Stevenson use to present deviant science?

Why was 1945 such a time of change?

How do I explore stage directions?

Why was the reign of James 1st so unstable?

What are the features of a tragedy?

What methods does Stevenson use to create tension and fear?

What were the common attitudes towards deviance in the Victorian era?

How do I make purposeful notes and annotations?

How do I manipulate the reader's emotions?

How do I express my opinion powerfully?

Stevenson's Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr. Hyde

YEAR 10

The Victorian Short Story: Sherlock Holmes

How do I make links between language across the text?

How do I recall key quotations to support my ideas?

What was considered appropriate gentlemanly Victorian behavior?

What methods does Doyle use to build a continuous enigma?

How do I utilize my cultural capital in a written argument?

How do I develop a personal interpretation of a Shakespearean character and theme?

How do I confidently explore a writer's ideas about love and conflict?

How do I compare language and structural methods used by Shakespeare and the poets?

Introduction to Shakespearean Tragedy: Romeo and Juliet

Introduction to Love Poetry

Introduction to Non-Fiction

How do I confidently make links between the text and the Elizabethan context?

How do I confidently develop and present an interpretation of a contemporary love poem?

How can I magpie and mimic another writer's style and methods?

How do I interpret varied perspectives?

YEAR 9

Introduction to Shakespeare: Richard III

Structuring Writing: The Writer's Craft

What is the purpose of a 'History' play?

Which methods are used to emphasise the villainy of this character?

What are the best methods to build tension?

How do I construct a flashback?

What methods does Bronte use to present Jane as an admirable hero?

How do I comment on the writer's ideas about love and power?

How do I make purposeful structural choices in my writing?

How do I develop a personal argument about a literary text?

Why are dystopian stories seen as a 'window to the world'?

What are the best methods for introducing characters?

How do I present an immersive setting?

How do I comment on individual word choices with confidence?

How do I comment on historical context?

How do I select relevant evidence?

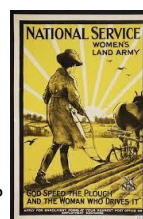

What is gothic fiction?

What were the dominant ideas and attitudes in the Victorian era?

How do I identify a poet's 'big idea' about war and conflict?

How do I edit my writing?

What are the ingredients of great descriptive writing?

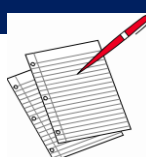

What are the best ways to start a piece of creative writing?

What choices does a writer make?

What are the ingredients of an analysis essay?

What methods do poets use?

What was life like during WW1/WW2?

How do I annotate a poem?

YEAR 7

Introduction to Writing: Crafting Narratives

Introduction to Poetry