

Your English Learning Journey at The Hurlingham Academy

What methods do writers

use to convey emotional How do I tone? achieve exam What are the ingredients of a successful argumentative piece?

What are the differences between non-fiction text

types?

How do I

sequenced

construct a well-

narrative extract?

Why was the 1960s

social and political change?

such a time of

How do I explore subtle differences between texts?

Are ideas about power timeless?

What are the most powerful poetic methods?

Apply to sixth form and University Continue your lifelong love of learning

Revision for GCSF exam

How do I revise effectively?

Language Paper 1: Reading

and Writing Fiction

Stevenson's Strange Case of

Dr Jekyll and Mr. Hyde

How do respond to an evaluative

statement?

Literature: Poetry- Unseen Language Paper 2: Reading and Writing Non-Fiction and Power and Conflict

How do different their ideas on a

How does the text

galvanize sympathy?

similar theme?

How do I respond to an unseen poem?

How does Shakespeare

of the characters?

present the metamorphosis

Literature: Shakespeare's

Macbeth

What are the features of What is the powerful didactic message of the

YEAR

approach an unseen extract with confidence?

What methods does Stevenson use present

What methods does Stevenson use to create tension and fear? How do I explore stage directions?

Odimba's

didactic

message

Literature: Odimba's

'Princess and the Hustler'

What were the common attitudes towards deviance in the Victorian era?

Why was the reign of James 1st so unstable?

How do I make purposeful notes and annotations?

manipulate the reader's emotions? How do I express my noinigo powerfully?

How do I

How do I make links between language across the text?

How do I recall key quotations to support my ideas?

How do I develop a personal interpretation of a Shakespearean character and theme?

What was considered appropriate gentlemanly Victorian behavior?

How do I confidently explore a writer's ideas about love and conflict?

Introduction to Shakespearean

What methods does Doyle use to build a continuous enigma?

How do I compare language and structural methods used by Shakespeare and the poets?

The Victorian Short Story:

Sherlock Holmes

How do I utilize my cultural capital in a written argument?

Introduction to

Tragedy: Romeo and Juliet How do I

YEAR

Why are dystopian

'window to the world'?

stories seen as a confidently make links between the text and the Elizabethan context?

How do I confidently develop and present an interpretation of a contemporary love poem?

How does the play mirror social ideas of the Introduction to Shakespeare:

Richard III

Introduction to Love

Poetry

mimic another writer's style and methods?

How do I make purposeful structural choices in my writing?

> How do I develop a personal argument

about a literary text?

How do I interpret varied perspectives?

What is the purpose of a

'History' play?

How do I present an immersive setting?

Which methods are used to emphasise the villainv of this character?

Introduction to Short Stories:

How do I approach Shakespearean language?

What are the best methods to build tension?

How do I construct a flashback?

Structuring Writing: The

Writer's Craft

What methods does Bronte use to present Jane as an admirable hero?

How do I comment on the writer's ideas about love and

Introduction to the Victorian

What are the best methods introducing characters?

How do edit my writing?

Dystopian Fiction How do I comment on individual word choices with confidence?

How do I identify and comment on links and patterns across a text?

How do I comment on historical context?

How do I select relevant evidence

Introduction to Poetry

What is gothic

Novel: Jane Eyre

and attitudes in the Victorian

How do I identify a poet's 'big idea' about war and conflict?

What are the ingredients of great descriptive the best ways to start a piece of creative writing?

writer make?

What are the analysis essay?

during WW1/WW2?

How do I annotate a poem?

What are

What choices does a ingredients of an

