

Mr Wilson's Weekly Message

Once again it has been a busy week here at The Hurlingham Academy. Key stage 3 continued to work hard on their assessments. I have been so incredibly impressed with the maturity and resilience pupils have shown throughout the exam period. It has been fantastic to hear the conversations pupils have been having with their teachers about the upcoming assessments, and to see pupils revising both in lessons and outside school. I would like to congratulate all pupils for taking their exams so seriously, and for year 7, well done for making it through your first exam period here at Hurlingham. I know that exams can be stressful, and I am incredibly proud of how you have all navigated the last two weeks.

Year 10 Hospitality

Year 10 Hospitality and Catering students have been developing their pastry-making skills through a series of practical lessons. Students have successfully produced both sweet and savoury shortcrust pastry.

Last week, they created a classic treacle tart, focusing on lining a pastry case, preparing the filling, and practising lattice-style pastry toppings. This week, the students produced an excellent chicken and leek pie, demonstrating strong progress in both technique and presentation.

All practical lessons are skills-based and are carefully designed to prepare students for their Year 11 examination, during which they will design and prepare multiple dishes. The commitment and progress shown by the class has been impressive, and they should be very proud of their achievements.

Donation to the SEND Department

Following their fantastic violin concert in December, we are delighted to announce that friend of Hurlingham, Meg, and her son have raised a phenomenal £704 for the SEND department at Hurlingham.

We are hugely grateful for this generous donation, which will be used to purchase new resources for Lunch Club as well as additional occupational therapy equipment. We will also be asking our pupils for suggests as to how they might like some of the money to be spent. We cannot thank Meg enough for her continued support.
