

MFL Educational Visit to the University of Oxford – Christ Church College

Tuesday 18th March 2026

Dear Parent/Carer,

We are pleased to inform you that your child has been selected to take part in an educational visit to the University of Oxford, specifically Christ Church College, on Tuesday 28 April 2026. This visit forms part of our university outreach programme and is designed to inspire students by giving them first-hand experience of university life.

Purpose of the Visit

The visit aims to introduce students to higher education, explore what studying languages looks like at university level, provide insight into the university admissions process, and allow students to hear directly from current Oxford undergraduates.

Travel Arrangements

Students will travel by coach from school, departing at 9:00am. The group will return to school at approximately 5:00pm. Cost and Payment. The cost of travel is £10 per student. Payment must be made via ParentPay no later than Friday 17th March 2026.

Itinerary

10:45–11:00 Arrival at Christ Church (Tom Tower)
11:00–12:00 Oxford Explained / University Life & Admissions
12:00–13:00 Lunch
13:00–13:30 Q&A with current undergraduates
13:30–14:00 Tour of Christ Church College
14:15–15:15 Academic activity session
Afternoon return journey to school

Lunch and Dietary Requirements

Lunch will be provided free of charge by Christ Church College. Most dietary requirements can be accommodated and must be communicated with the school if there has been any change. While care is taken, an allergen-free environment cannot be guaranteed.

Supervision and Safety

Students will be accompanied and supervised throughout the visit by school staff and supported by Christ Church outreach staff.

This visit is an excellent opportunity for students to broaden their academic aspirations and gain insight into one of the world's leading universities. We strongly encourage participation.
